

1 Peter 3: 8, 9 Copy Work and Study

This resource can be used for a variety of age groups, by choosing from the various activities according to the ability of the student.

For example, one child may be capable of tracing within the lines but may not be capable of writing sentences on their own.

One child may not be able to write but may be capable of drawing a picture, another may be able to do all the activities or just need assistance with comprehension.

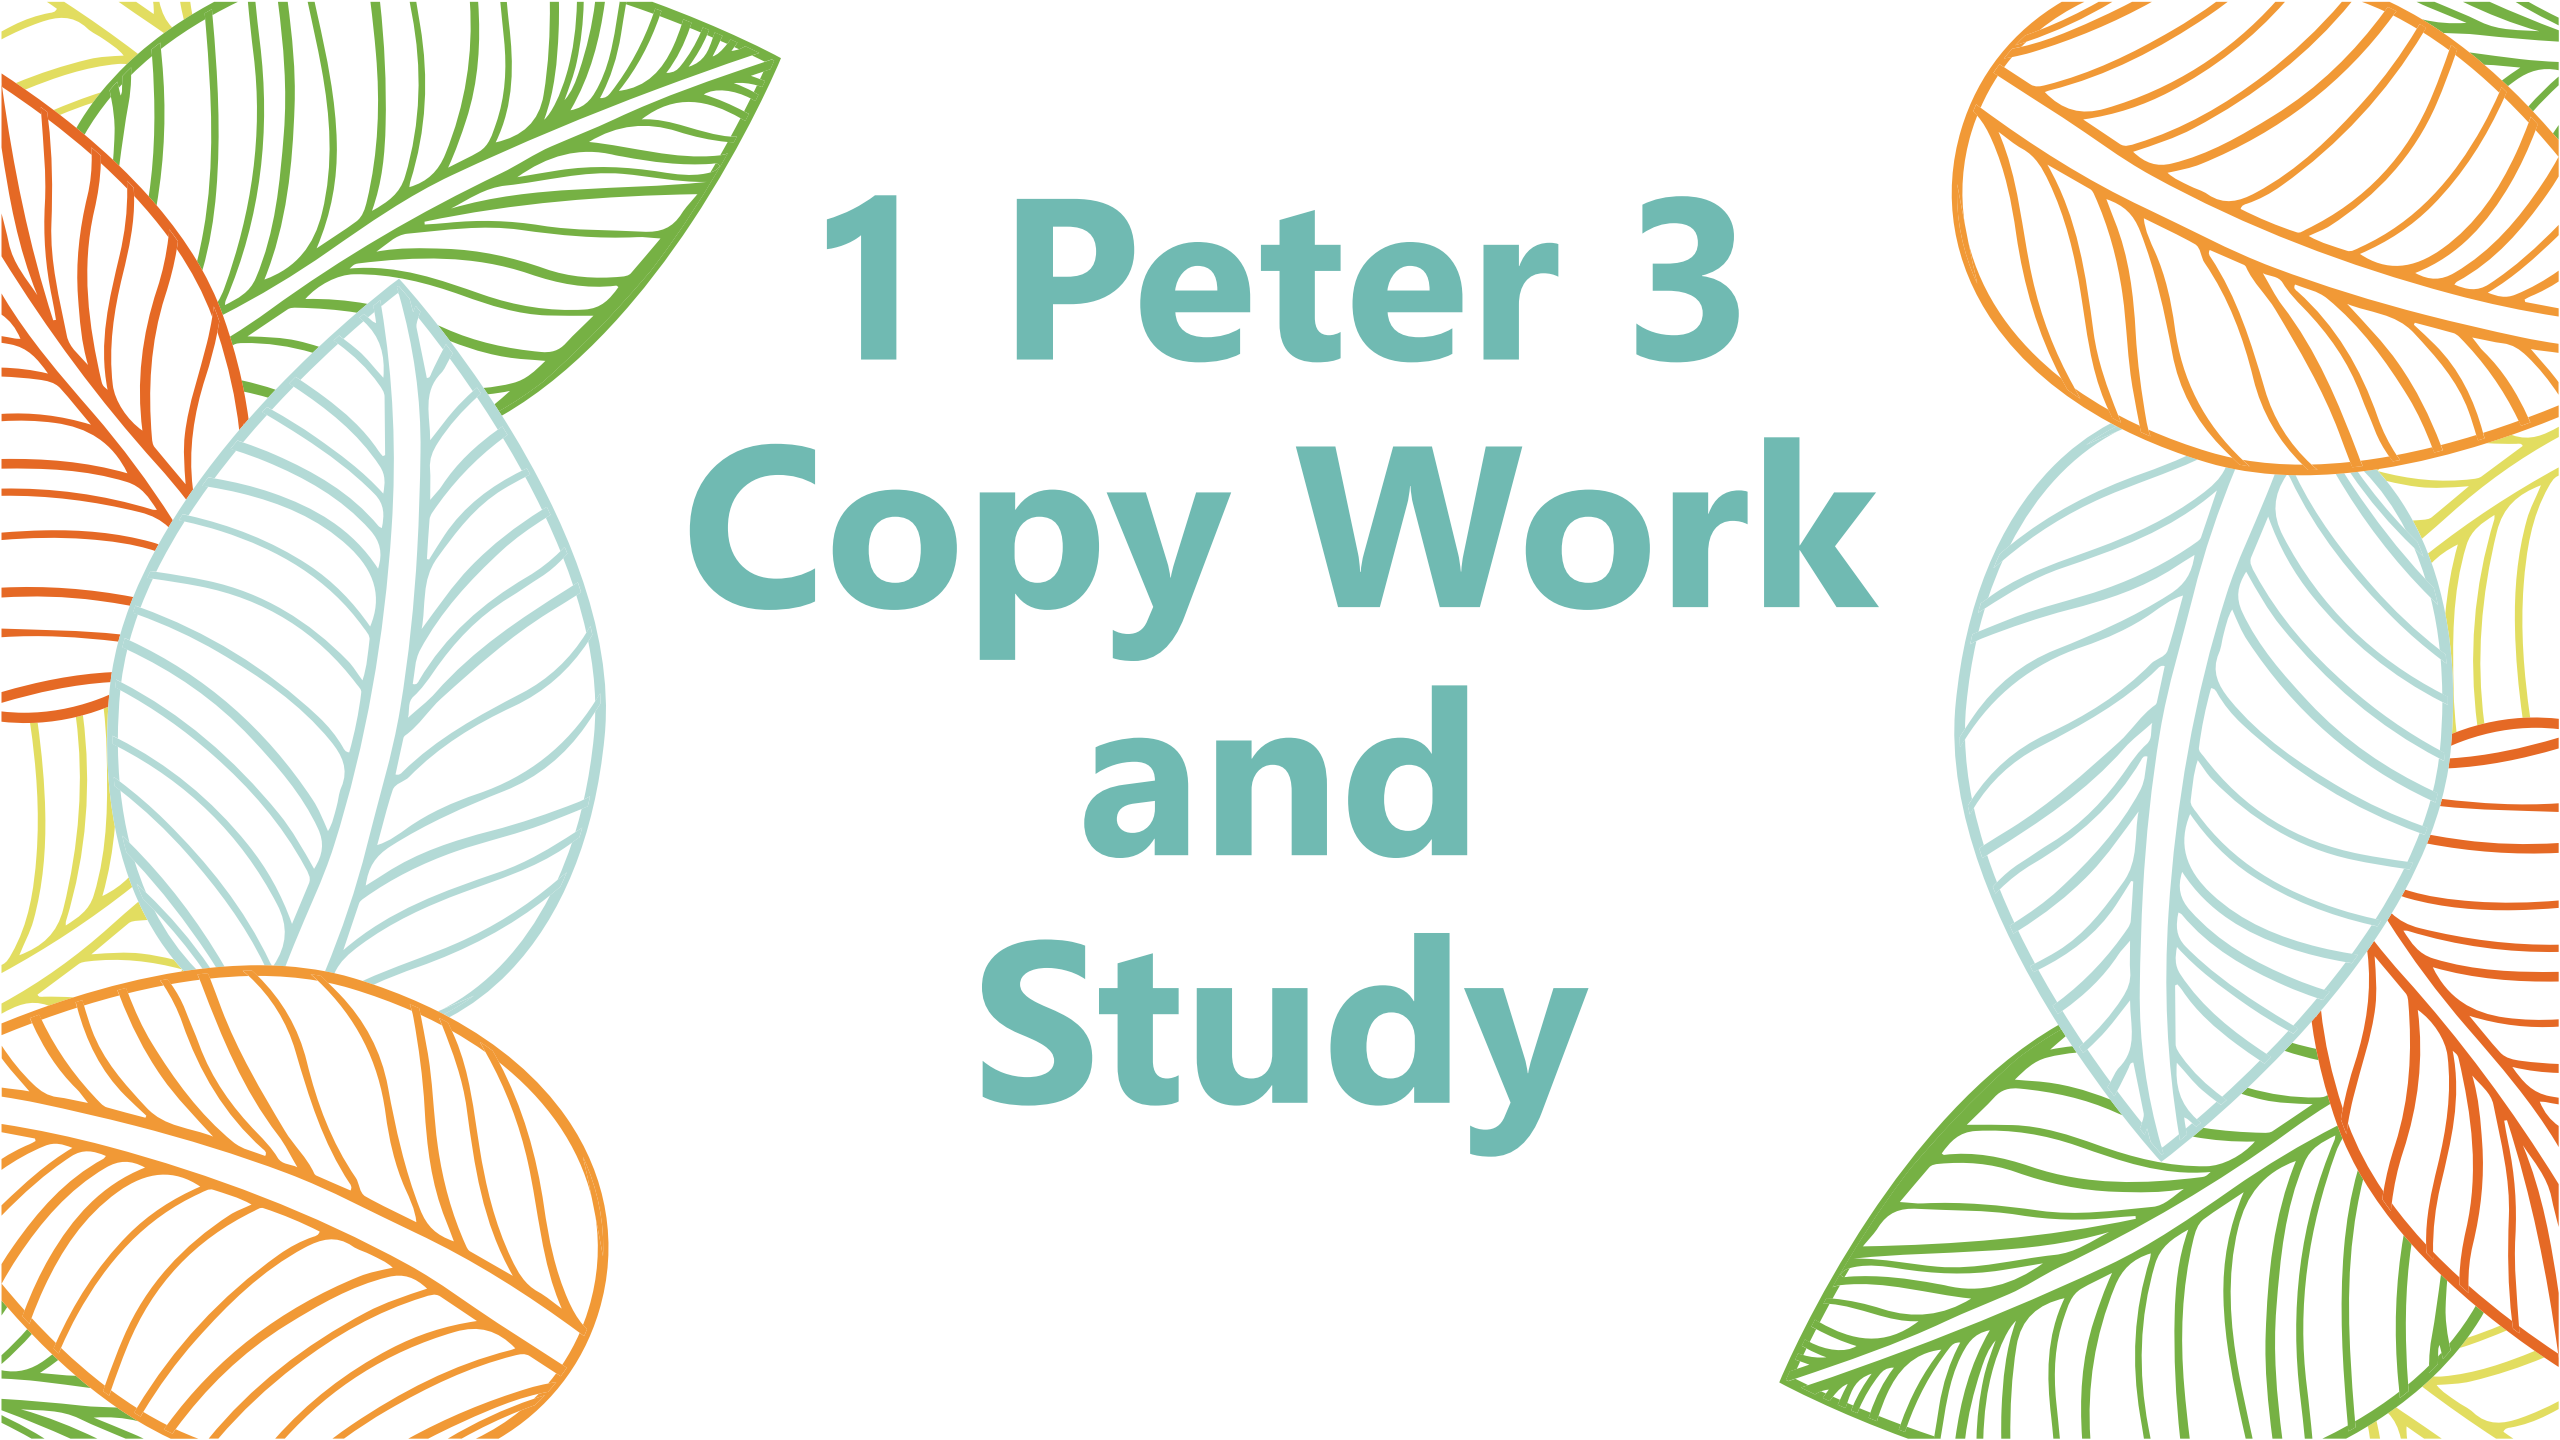

If you do not want the coloured backgrounds (to save on ink or so that children can be more creative with colouring etc) please use the plain black and white document or select 'greyscale' when printing.

For printing for student use, I would suggest not printing this page and the last page concerning copyright. The activities are set up so that the pages with the same-colored background go together. For example, pages 3 and 4 should sit side by side, 5 and 6 side by side etc.

Happy teaching and learning!

Blessings
